INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

1. Instructions to complete for the Individual Awards Package:

- A. Please follow the instructions. The Awards Selection Committee will only see one page on each individual.
- B. Individual nominees are eligible for three awards. You are allowed to submit an individual for more than one category. Please submit a separate Awards Package for each award for each category.
- C. Page 2 of the award package will be used for the final judging. You have one page of BULLET statements to document the nominee's accolades. Please keep the font at 11 point.
- D. You may submit any additional support documentation, i.e. pictures, news articles, etc. However, they will not be scored unless there is a tie or verification is necessary. If you are submitting an individual for more than one award, you need to submit only one support package per individual.

2. There are three Awards available for individuals:

- A. Amateur Of The Year. Award is given to a ham that has made a long-term commitment to the advancement to amateur radio. This individual will have a history of ham radio contributions and has had a dedication to service, professionalism and the advancement of the avocation of amateur radio.
- B. Technical Excellence. will be given to the selected amateur radio operator who has achieved technical excellence in the world of ham radio. Examples are inventions, processes, discoveries, experiments and other technical accomplishments or any other outstanding technical achievement that contributed to amateur radio.
- C. Special Achievement. will be given to a deserving ham that made an outstanding contribution to the advancement of the radio art and or science. This award is usually given to a respected amateur who spearheaded a single significant project.
